As you arrive at the school you sigh at the sight of the barbed fence surrounding it. The extreme amount of guards patrolling around it are upsetting too. You approach the barbed fence surrounding your school entrance, when a familiar face smiles at you from the school hallway. Bradley, your oldest friend and your new friend, Abbie.

You smile back and are about to make your way inside, when a hand on your shoulder from behind stops you in the entrance.

"You've been selected for a random search. Step aside and put your hands on the wall." A firm voice says and gives you a slight push.

"What do you think I'm hiding? A gun?"

Cooperate.

Resist.
